All food packages contain high-protein, nutrient-dense, top-quality foods purchased especially for our program. In many cases, CSFP foods come packed in the same boxes and bags as the popular brand-name foods found on grocery store shelves.

Senior citizens receive a food box each month containing:

- A two-pound block of American cheese
- Two units of either spaghetti, macaroni, or rice
- One Ultra High-Temperature Shelf Stable 1% Milk
- One bag of non-fat dry milk
- Two cans Fruits and Fruit juice
- Canned Vegetables
- Canned or Pouched Meat, Poultry and Fish
- Cereals

OTHER COMMUNITY RESOURCES

211 connects callers to health and human services resources in their community. This free, confidential service is available 24/7. Offers multilingual services and information for the hearing impaired.

Across Louisiana, schools, recreation centers, parks, churches, and libraries are serving free, nutritious summer meals to kids age 18 and younger through the USDA's Summer Food Service Program (SFSP). The SFSP was designed to help low-income students during the summer months who aren't receiving free or reduced-price school meals to continue to have access to meals and snacks. Louisiana SFSPs serve more than 2.5 million meals each summer.

Louisiana has nearly 900 summer meal sites feeding children in communities throughout the state. To find a Summer Meals Site near you:
